WIN RACE AT OLD PINLICO

Consolation Steeplechase Easy Victory for Sir Wooster.

Bell Mawr, Flying the Colors of W. P. Burch, Captures Electric Park Purse.

Baltimore, Md., May 6.-Fencing in his old-time form, Sir Wooster scored an easy victory in the Consolation Steeplechase, the feature of to-day's programme at Pimlico. Stanchly placed as the second choice, the big bay gelding didn't have any difficulty in disposing of his field. Five started, but there were only three seriously considered. Waterway being made the favorite, while Touchwood had some supporters. Bell Mawr, carrying the colors of W. P. Burch, the Washington turfman, was the winner over a big field in the Electric Park Purse, the event of the week. He went to the front without any effort in the stretch and won going away. Tim Pippin was the most popular winner of the afternoon. He took the measure of a select field in the fifth race.
